HOT PLATE POLICY

The Norelius Community Library is excited to offer the new hot plate for programming and patron's use. All patrons using the hot plate must have a basic knowledge of cooking in order to operate the hot plate or be supervised by another responsible individual. Children under the age of 14 years must be supervised by a parent or legal guardian. The library will not be responsible for mistakes made in the creative process or for any injuries sustained during the operation of the hot plate and by signing a permission form below, the user and supervisor of the patron agree to hold the library and city of Denison harmless from any personal injuries or damages to materials caused by the machine. The library will not supply cooking supplies or ingredients.
